The Prayer Closet

By Galen and Carole Marcille

These last few months have brought a lot of trying circumstances into our lives and the lives of our loved ones. During these times, it can be easy to find ourselves confused by the mysteries of prayer. I found myself battling a number of silly ideas and thoughts about how I approached the Lord in my prayer times. I heard about a number of silly ideas and thoughts others had about praying for our concerns before the Lord.

I understand that we need to prevail in prayer—to be persistent and not give up when praying if the answer is delayed. I still don't understand why, but I've also learned that God is not keeping score. He's not sitting there with a counter, clicking off the number of our prayers. He doesn't say, "Oops! You missed by one prayer, therefore I can't answer your request with a yes."

I understand the need to pray, but it's not about a formula. God is not sitting there, demanding that we turn around three times, fast ten days, climb a tree and shout to Him at the top of our lungs, fall on our faces and pray for three hours, and THEN He will answer our prayers the way we want. He doesn't say, "Oops, you missed a step! I can't give you a yes." God is not a formula God, and will not be manipulated.

I understand that we need to pray. Various models may help lead us there, but God does not require specific wording. He's not saying, "Oops! You didn't say it right. Now I can't answer your prayer with a yes." We still pray, as many times as we need to, saying whatever is on the heart, even sitting in silence works, if that is what we need to do.

I know faith plays an important part in our prayers. Jesus told us that if we had faith the size of a mustard seed, nothing would be impossible to us. From what I can see, the mere act of praying indicates at least some small measure of faith, in that we come to God with the expectation that He can do something about the situation and that He cares. Press on—that's what faith does!

Some people say that we should only speak "life and faith" words and never speak of our fears and doubts. Do we really think that God is bound by our fears? God is greater than my fears and the exact One I should take all my fears to! Do we really think God says, "Oh no! Now I can't work because you said one word of fear and doubt. Now My mighty right arm is shortened and I can't help you"? Do we think we can't express our fears and doubts to Him who knows all things anyway? Do we really think He is impressed by our denial of our struggles and our feigned faith? Oh no! Look at the response of Jesus when the man crying out for his son's healing said, "Lord, I believe! Please help my unbelief!" It was enough for Him!

Many mysteries remain, but as God deals with each of these misbeliefs, I find my confidence in Him growing. I'm holding up my shield of faith and trusting His heart of goodness, mercy, and wisdom. I'll accept a no as well as a yes, even if my heart weeps, because His "no" was not given out of callousness and apathy—but out of His vast understanding and redeeming love. ~ Carole

House of Hope Needs Your Help!

As you know, HCC is a supporter of House of Hope and I want to share with you a simple way for you to help support this ministry.

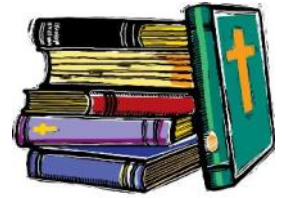

Just download the GoodSearch – House of Hope toolbar at www.goodsearch.com/toolbar/house-of-hope-southworth. Each time you search the web with GoodSearch's Yahoo-powered search engine, about a penny will go to House of Hope. Also, every time you shop online at 1,000 participating stores including Amazon, eBay, Target, Apple, Staples, Expedia, etc., a percentage of your purchase will be donated! The site also has thousands of money-saving coupons! To give you a sense of how the money can add up, the ASPCA has already earned more than $30,000! If you don't want the toolbar, you can select GoodSearch as your default browser. If you don't see it, click on "Find More Providers," and put GoodSearch in and it will bring it up and you can select it as your default browser. Make sure while selecting it, to select House of Hope, Southworth, WA as your charity. Please tell your friends about the GoodSearch toolbar today. They've been featured in the NY Times, the Wall Street Journal, CNN, Oprah Magazine, Good Morning America and more.

For more information about House of Hope (HOH), visit www.houseofhopeministry.net. HOH is a prison discipleship ministry, under the care of Michael and Margie Sgobba, who minister to and mentor brothers in Christ who have been just released from prison (and to their families), as they adjust to the outside world and need help to grow spiritually and maintain their basic physical needs of living. Many are released from jail/prison without money, clothing, shelter or food. HOH is God's arms extended to the "least of these" (Matthew 25:35-40) to aid in breaking the vicious cycle of crime.

For any questions about the House of Hope or GoodSearch program, please call Janita Lagasca, Evergreen Prison Ministry.

All Books Needed

Evergreen Prison Ministry can now receive ALL kinds of good condition books, secular, Christian, paperback and hard cover in our red box in the Family Mailbox Room. The books that are not allowed into the jails/prisons, will be sold and 100% of the money will be used to purchase Bibles and Christian literature for the inmates.

Dear Prayer Intercessors:

This is the Psalm the Lord has given us for the 2011 House of Hope Prayer Ministries. Please stand in agreement with us in prayer for the Christians in Jail/Prison and for those of us who are bringing the saving knowledge into the jails and prisons.

Psalm 40 - A Prayer of the Prisoner

- 1 I waited patiently for the LORD; and He inclined to me, and heard my cry.
- 2 He also brought me up out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my steps.
- 3 He has put a new song in my mouth— Praise to our God; many will see it and fear, And will trust in the LORD.
- 4 Blessed is that man who makes the LORD his trust, And does not respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.
- 5 Many, O LORD my God, are Your wonderful works Which You have done; and Your thoughts toward us cannot be recounted to You in order; if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.
- 6 Sacrifice and offering You did not desire; My ears You have opened. Burnt offering and sin offering You did not require.
- 7 Then I said, "Behold, I come; in the scroll of the book it is written of me.
- 8 I delight to do Your will, O my God, And Your law is within my heart."
- 9 I have proclaimed the good news of righteousness In the great assembly; indeed, I do not restrain my lips, O LORD, You Yourself know.
- 10 I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart; I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation; I have not concealed Your loving-kindness and Your truth.

Early Childhood News

Dear Families,

If you take a walk down the hallway near the Early Childhood classrooms you may hear some loud sounds!

In the Cruiser's Classroom, the children are learning about how God made each of them. The kids are making crafts that match the Bible story. You will hear singing as the teachers help the kids learn to praise God. The children are playing instruments and learning how to worship.

In the Climber's Classroom, the kids are learning about how God has made everything. The students are leaning about how much God loves all of us. They are playing and singing about God.

The children in the Preschool and Kindergarten classes are having fun learning about Jesus. The kids are learning through crafts, songs, activities, and even special snacks at times. The sounds you hear are children laughing and having fun as they learn about God.

God is a big God who sometimes seems far away. Yet, to a child God is a God who cares about each person. The children love to take turns praying to God about their needs. God loves to hear each prayer that the children pray. God cares about sick friends (or even sick stuffed animals!!) and God loves to hear our praise.

In the Sunday School classrooms, it may sound like there is a lot of noise, but in that noise is the sound of children learning how to praise our great God.

Katie Taylor

Summit Seekers Winter Retreat in Review

This year's winter retreat was full of lots of fun and laughter. In the midst of the fun God did some really amazing things as we learned about being His. We learned we are created to be His, chosen to be His, and convicted to be His; what a freeing place to be when you know whose you are. The kids were challenged through some great worship and speaker times as well as five different classes focusing on aspects of belonging to God. Over all we had a great time growing in our walks with Jesus as well as growing in our friendships with one another. Check our web page for pictures and videos from the retreat.

Purpose

The Higher Ground Children's Ministry exists to:

G - grow kids and families by...

R - reaching kids and families in the community and world by

O - opening opportunities for fun with each other

U - uncovering God's Word, bringing kids

N - nearer to Jesus and to

D - discover their spiritual gifts to serve

Each of the things we do in the Children's Ministry fall somewhere in our purpose. As we grow, some of the opportunities for involvement may change, but the purpose of helping families know Jesus will remain. John 17:3 - And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.
