You Did It!

We are very excited to report that Highline raised $5337 for the Care Net Baby Bottle Campaign! Way to go! We are so proud of all the support you gave. Pat Barnett (Community Outreach Team Leader) is especially grateful for the all the hard work and willing people that helped make this campaign so successful. The total for the whole campaign with many different churches involved was $42, 500!

Note from Church Life Director

Hello Highliners!

Here is a quick update regarding some of the activities mentioned in our August eNewsletter:

- 1) Thanks to the hard work of Gregg Louvier and a host of dedicated giving volunteers, the HCC Welcome Center is up and running! The physical location will continue to see significant up-grading before the end of August. Spiritually, this area is even now serving as a unity center, and it's importance is growing weekly.
- 2) Thanks to Ben Kirkham and his dedicated approach, the 2014 Tom Barnes Classic was one of our best ever! Ben ran a very smooth and joyous event, leaving plenty of room for fellowship, unexpectedly good food, and the enjoyment of God's great outdoors. The golf was fun, too. Perhaps the best news of all is that Ben has agreed to coordinate the 2015 Tom Barnes classic and has already made notable progress towards our goal of making next year's event even bigger and better!
- 3) Our Fall 2014 Bible Study classes have been set. So have our connection groups and small groups. Please allow me to simply say that the leaders and lineup are exciting! The revised and updated schedule will be available on the H.U.B., and in print form to members and regular attendees.
- 4) More things to look for during the month of September: news regarding TOUCH classes, new and better signage in the North & South Buildings, updates regarding our Visitor-Servant process.

Thank you for your faith, prayers, and support!

Your servant in Christ,

Jack

Seniors Activity

For the month of September, we will carpool to the SeaTac Community Center for lunch ($3.00) and music by the Hanky Panky Band. The date is Wednesday, September 3. Meet in the church's parking lot at 11:30 a.m. For more information, contact Steve Moreland or Georgia Henney. No sign-ups are required.

You can look forward to a possible ride in the mountains to see the leaves in October, our Thanksgiving dinner in November, and ride to see the Christmas lights in December.

It's a Girl!

We would like to welcome Natalya Dudenko who was born on June 23, 2014. She weighed 6 lbs 14 oz and was 19 inches long. Her parents are Igor Dudenko & Julie Lester, her big sisters are Samantha & Lizzie and her grandmother is Karen Lester. Welcome to Highline Natalya!

We would like to offer sympathy to the family of Gene Tonnemaker. Gene went home to be with the Lord on August 10, 2014.

Gene had been attending Highline for the last year. Please remember Gene's family in your prayers during this difficult time.

Thank you to all my friends and church family for your prayers, love and cards. They were very much appreciated and helped ease the pain of losing our son. We love you all!

The 'S' Word

As a short term mission is born, evolves and comes to fruition, it does so like any ‘boots on the ground’ military mission. The difference being, short term missions are born out of the Word of God. They follow scripture. *Go and make disciples of all nations... (Matthew 28:16-20 NIV). Powerful Truths. Powerful words.

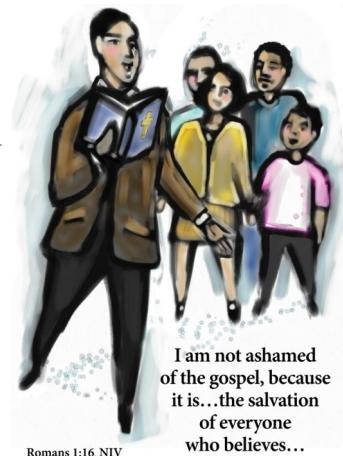

Writers and storytellers may know the power of the pen, but Believers, know the power of the Word. Often it is the combination of Divine timing and Divine ink, where God will use words to bring catalytic and powerful life changes. Salvation. I’d like to call this today’s ‘S’ word of encouragement. I have noticed there are a lot of ‘S’ words out there lately. Some we sling without thought to the audience around us. Some we whisper. Some ‘S’ words are so heavy lately, we cannot fathom the pain they deliver. They are woven tightly into our everyday world both, for the body of Christ and for non-believers. However, it is out of Divine Ink, words written in the blood of the Lamb that every short term mission finds its words of encouragement, it’s cornerstone...the good news of salvation through Jesus Christ.

Once again, we, the Africa Hope Mission Team, are preparing our hearts, minds, and spirits to return to Africa. Our hearts are called to be the ‘boots on the ground’, hands and feet of Jesus Christ delivering the good news of salvation. We pray Highline family, that you too, will answer God’s prompting. He may prompt you to buy a T-shirt or sweatshirt in September, a pie for Thanksgiving in November, or prompt you to volunteer at the Christmas Tree Stand in December. He may lead you specifically to partner with us for funding or most importantly He may call you to be a Word Ninja, asking you to open your Bible to Ephesians 6:10 in prayer warriorship with us. Whatever He asks of you, we pray, our Highline Christian Church family, that your answer will be yes. Yes, Lord, yes.

On my first short term mission experience I witnessed, the power of God’s presence and the power-packed punch of a church praying for our safety while we were in the African desert in 2011. Hundreds of thousands of miles from home, we could feel your prayers under our feet, surrounding us, protecting us, even encouraging us. My heart told me the HCC Word ninjas were hard at work using the power of prayer. God was listening to you and acting upon your prayers, going before us day after day in Africa, and on the way home.

All that being said, as a short term missionary, there is no more powerful witness to the glory of God, than the sight of young men and women standing up, answering the call to accept Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. Whether we bear witness to one hundred new hearts given over to Christ, or one heart who knows now that salvation is theirs, salvation is serious business that brings God great joy.

Seriously,
Africa Hope Mission
Team 2015

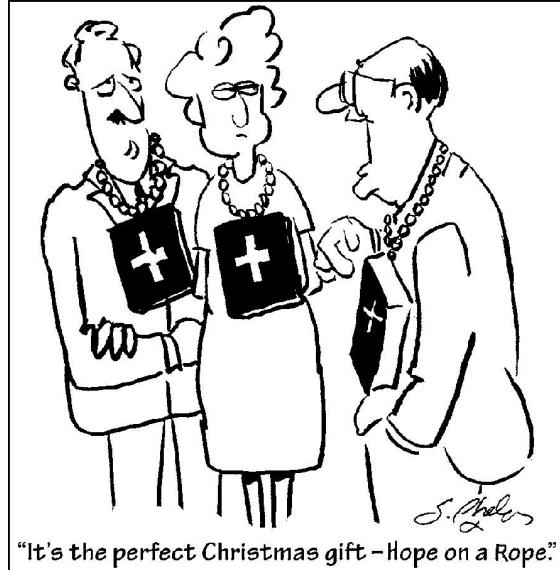

G hope that you have been shopping, praying, or thinking about how to participate with Operation Christmas Child this year.

We will be distributing OCC shoeboxes on the weekend of October 18/19 and collecting filled and paid for boxes no later than the weekend of November 15/16.

This Back-to-School time is a great time to find good deals on items that would bless a needy child. Keep on the lookout for items that would fit in a shoebox and that would fill the categories of:

- Something to Snuggle With (ie stuffed animal)
- Something Warm (ie SOCKS, hat, t-shirt, gloves)
- Something to Write On (ie notepad, coloring book, journal)
- Something to Write With (ie CRAYONS, markers, SHARPENED colored or reg pencils)
- Something To Play With (ie toys, BALLS, jump ropes, calculators, play-doh, travel game)
- Something Necessary (ie toothbrush/paste, soap/washcloth, comb, flashlight) and
- Some Hard Candy/Gum (no other food items).

Keep in mind that we cannot send used items, breakable items, war-related items or any food other than hard candy or gum. Please contact Tammie Lindblom for any Operation Christmas Child questions. If you are able to pay for the shipping of someone else's box, contact Tammie Lindblom or make a check payable to Samaritan's Purse (with OCC in the memo line) for amounts in increments of $7. Multiple boxes can be paid for with a single check. If you are interested in having someone else shop for you, contact Tammie Lindblom.

The Slurry Walls of Life

As horrific as 9/11 was, it could've been even worse if not for a 30-year-old engineering feat. Reaching some 70 feet underground, a 3-foot-thick concrete structure called a "slurry wall" surrounded the base of the World Trade Center complex. Designed to prevent the Hudson River from flooding the basement, this wall prevented New York's subway system from flooding and countless additional people from dying on September 11, 2001.

A slurry wall is constructed by pouring a thick, goopy mixture of powdered clay and water into a deep, narrow trench. The solution coats the sides, preventing water and soil from collapsing the trench. Pipes are then inserted through the slurry, and concrete is pumped into the trench, pushing the slurry up and out. At the WTC, the concrete formed such a strong wall that even two airplanes and the falling towers didn't fracture it. Part of the slurry wall still stands at the 9/11 Memorial site, a symbol of resilience.

Sometimes God uses life's "slurry" to make us stronger than we ever thought possible. We might wish something yucky hadn't happened — until we discover it was part of what sustained us, making us resilient and enabling us to rise out of destruction and death to awe-inspiring new life.

The Prayer Closet

By Galen and Carole Marcille

Sometimes life can be discouraging. Answers to prayer can seem slow to come or even non-existent. What do we do in the face of times like these? Quite simply, we keep on praying.

In Luke 18: 1-8, Jesus tells a story to encourage people to always pray and to not lose heart. In this story, a widow goes to a judge repeatedly to seek justice for herself against her adversary. The judge does not give two feathers and a fig about God or man, and continually turns the widow away without her much-sought resolution. The widow refuses to give up and continues to pester the judge for much-desired justice, in spite of all the evidence to the contrary that there was any hope for justice to be received from the unjust judge. However her continual seeking had worn down the judge, who finally realizes that if he does not do for her what she asks, he will never hear the end of it. So the judge grants her request for justice against her adversary.

Of course, as with all of Jesus' stories, there is a moral to this story. If an unjust judge will grant a persistent widow her request simply because he no longer wishes to be harassed, how much more will our Heavenly Father grant justice to His beloved elect, who cry out to Him day and night? And quickly!

And Jesus leaves us with a burning question at the end of the lesson: "When the son of Man comes, will He find faith upon the earth?"

Will He find:

- ⌚ Faith that believes that God is better and kinder to His children than an unjust judge?
- ⌚ Faith that persists in asking even if the answer appears long in coming?

- ⌚ Faith that dares to ask in the first place?
- ⌚ Faith that understands we do not ask on the basis of our own merit, but on His?
- ⌚ Faith that continues to ask even when the day and way is very dark?
- ⌚ Faith that understands that God wants to hear our requests and values our persistent prayers?

Faith like that of a couple I knew who continually sought healing for the wife who was left severely disfigured after an operation to remove a brain tumor. They attended various healing services and pleaded with the Lord to bring healing to her. Discouraged, they went to their minister to seek counsel. After pouring out their hearts regarding their request and the apparent "no," they asked their pastor if they were wrong in asking God for healing. The pastor answered them, "I would rather stand before God and ask Him why He chose not to heal me, than to stand before Him and admit I never bothered to ask because I didn't think He'd answer me anyway."

Although I do not know the end of that story, I, too, would not want to stand before God and tell my Heavenly Father that I did not think He'd even care to hear my request and because of that, I could not be bothered to ask Him.

This chapter continues on to highlight other acceptable prayers near to God's heart. Prayers for justice, of confession and repentance, of blessing and the touch of Jesus upon our children, of questions--whether or not we are ready for the answers, and for God's mercy--to give us what we desire, though we do not deserve it. Faith to ask! Will Jesus find faith like that upon the earth when He returns? Will He find it in us?

New Women in the Word Study Starts Soon!

Hi girlfriends...it's that time again and Women in the Word is on the move for Jesus, His Word and in fellowship with each other.

Our new Bible study is beginning, Wednesday, September 17 at 6:30 pm in the Great Room. (N. Bldg.). CHILDREN OF THE DAY with our exciting teacher, Beth Moore who will be leading us through the books of 1& 2 Thessalonians. While the study is advertised in the material as a nine-week study, we will be having a video one week and group study the next, making it into 19 weeks.

Sign-ups will be available September 6 & 7th. Check out the Women in the Word table in the Atrium. We are so anxious to get started and pray you will consider this interactive personal study.

The Scripture reference for our study is from 1 Thessalonians 5:5,

"You are children of the light and children of the day. We do not belong to the night or to the darkness."

Update Letter September 2014

As we wrap up the summer the fall is just a hop, skip and a jump away! Nicole and I are very much looking forward to launching our fall program in October, but have a lot of work ahead of us as we prepare in September. We appreciate your prayer and support as we continue to move forward in ministry as God leads! Please let us know if there is anything we can pray for or do to help you as our parent partners!

Together in Christ,

Pastor Steve, Nicole
Jayden, Riley & Baby Brock

News Updates

I am excited about all the new changes going on with the HCC Youth Ministry Program! However with these changes we are going to need more leaders to join our team so that we can better reach our students! We have many different ministry opportunities and would love to get you plugged in! If you would like more info or would like to join the illuminate youth ministry team please contact Pastor Steve.

We will be taking the month of September off from our Wednesday night youth program. The purpose of this break is to allow our students to focus on family and school during the busy time of starting a new school year. This break will also give the illuminate leadership team some time to rest, recharge and get ready for the fall kickoff in October. During September our JH and HS Up-Word classes will continue to meet at their normal times and there will also be special youth events and activities.

HIGHER GROUND CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

SEPTEMBER SCHOOL EXCITEMENT

September brings all kinds of emotions and changes for families. Some get excited about going back to school while others are sad that summer break is coming to an end. Fall sport families make plans for practices and games and fair goers are looking forward to one of the last fairs of the season and are ready to do the Puyallup. No matter which family you are, if you have children, your home routine is about to change again and things at the church are no exception.

Starting September 7th our fall class schedule will begin. During the 9 a.m. worship service our age and graded Sunday School Classes will begin again. (Please see next page for class assignments and the EC Page for infant-Kindergarten class assignments.) During the 10:40 a.m. worship service the 1st-6th grade students will continue to meet in the Activity Center for Base Camp, children's church.

When does the mid-week Summit Trekkers start? Not until October. We hold off on starting our mid-week ministry for a month to allow families some time to adjust to all the new schedules. Summit Trekkers will begin October 2nd and will go from 6:00-7:30 p.m.

What will the kids be learning this year? The Big God Story from Genesis to Revelation to our own part in His big story. We look forward to partnering with you as you help your kids engage with the Big God Story as His Children. Blessing on a new school year!
